

Oppose S. J. Res 1, The Federal Marriage Amendment!

The Federal Marriage Amendment reflects a fundamental disregard for individual rights and would deeply undermine religious liberty. Writing discrimination into the Constitution stands in stark contrast to America’s tradition of expanding rights by constitutional amendment, not restricting them. The Federal Marriage Amendment must be soundly rejected.

The Amendment also would deeply undermine America’s commitment to religious liberty. The Constitution protects religious liberty for all; Congress should reject any attempt to enshrine into the Constitution a particular religious viewpoint on a matter of such fundamental religious importance.

Therefore, as your constituent, I respectfully ask that you oppose S. J. Res. 1, and that you oppose any effort to bring the Amendment to the Senate floor, including a cloture vote.
